GenV is the growing movement of youth across the world who are concerned enough about local social issues that they are taking matters into their own hands by launching community-benefiting projects.
By joining www.GenV.net you will have the opportunity to create your own web page and connect with other likeminded young changemakers worldwide.

Youth age 13+ can join GenV.net, and once on the site you can:

- Get help from Youth Venture, other young people who have launched their own projects (Ventures), & experts who know creating change is important.
- Find exciting opportunities for you, your team and your friends.
- Meet new people from all over the world who share your passion for making the world a better place.
- Blog, post audio, video and pictures of the change YOU are making.
- Inspire other youth to take the plunge and make a change.

GenV.net is easy to use. Just click the “Join Now” link on the upper left. Check out the Forums, Browse users & teams, and the tools provides for young changemakers like you.

GenV launched in early 2007 and is already active in 12 countries and in 6 languages! And, that’s just the beginning. Join the Movement. Meet new friends & start a Venture.
