

Bill Drayton
Keynote Speaker

Ashoka-Seattle is honored to welcome Bill Drayton, Ashoka's founder and CEO, as our keynote speaker. Around the world, Bill Drayton is considered the pioneer and champion of social entrepreneurship. He has received numerous awards for his dedication to public service, including election as a MacArthur Fellow, selection as one of America's Best Leaders by US News & World Report, recognition as one of Harvard University's 100 "Most Influential Alumni" and the recipient of the Goi Peace Foundation's Peace Award.

The event will also feature Seattle Youth Venturers who DREAM IT. DO IT. Be inspired by young changemakers (ages 12-20) who have launched their own social ventures to benefit our community. Since 2008, Youth Venture-Seattle has launched 50 teams.

What is Ashoka? Why Seattle?

What does it mean to be a social entrepreneur?

What does it mean to build the model for an "Everyone a Changemaker" City?

Come learn about this extraordinary global organization effecting sustainable change around the world, and the unique opportunity launching here in Seattle!

Please join co-chairs Jackie Kotkins, JoAnn Forman, and Craig Tall, and Executive Director Andrea Wenet, for the

First Annual Ashoka-Seattle "Be a Changemaker" Luncheon

Thursday, November 18th

11:30-1:00 p.m.

Grand Hyatt Seattle

Program begins promptly at 11:45 a.m.

Please return the enclosed RSVP card by November 8th

"Social entrepreneurs are not content just to give a fish or teach how to fish. They will not rest until they have revolutionized the fishing industry." - Bill Drayton