Tell Youth Venture How Things are Going

Date:
Reporting for the quarter period:	to
Partner organization name:
Champion, or person completing this report:

For this most recent reporting period and cumulatively, please provide the following information. Show the most recent quarter data first, followed by the cumulative total – e.g. 35 / 200. If necessary, provide estimates.

1. How many youth at your organization have been made aware of the Youth Venture opportunity (i.e. attended informational sessions, assemblies, been personally introduced, etc.)?
2. How many youth have been actively engaged in the Youth Venture opportunity (i.e. participated in a “Dream it. Do it.” workshop, started work on an Action Plan/application, etc.)?
3. How many youth are members of Venture Teams from your organization?
4. How many Venture Teams have been launched by your organization?
5. How many Venture Teams from your organization continue to operate as active Venture Teams?
6. How many volunteers have you engaged in the Youth Venture program (Volunteers may be Panelists, Allies, Technical Allies, etc.)?
7. List all youth/teams currently working on Action Plans. List by Venture name, if known, or just the venture idea, and list the name(s) of the lead Venturer(s). For each, indicate the likelihood of their completing a Venture Action Plan and becoming a Venturer, and the approximate time-frame anticipated.

11. What have been your core approaches to engaging youth in the Youth Venture opportunity. What has worked well? What has not worked so well?

12. Please summarize any Venture community-building that you have led and how each activity/event was received (Venture community-building denotes those activities and events planned for youth who are active Venturers—they might include, for example, periodic pizza parties to share ideas, skill-building workshops on various specific topics, etc.).

13. Please comment on any particular sections of the Partner Training Guide or other resource materials that you have found to be especially useful, or lacking in some ways. (Feedback from partners is our best insight to know what works well and how to improve things.)

14. Have you received the necessary level of support from Youth Venture to be successful in building the Youth Venture program there? How can we improve in supporting you?

15. Please comment on your overall assessment of the Youth Venture program at your organization at this stage. Include comments, for example, on the level of interest among youth, the commitment and support of staff at the organization, the reaction and level of interest among the broader community, etc.
